- Grosgrain ribbon: Grosgrain ribbon is a sturdy, textured ribbon that is perfect for creating loops and bows.

- Satin ribbon: Satin ribbon is a smooth, shiny ribbon that is perfect for creating flowers and other delicate shapes.
- Organza ribbon: Organza ribbon is a sheer, lightweight ribbon that is perfect for creating airy and ethereal effects.

Once you have chosen the right type of ribbon, you can begin to embellish your crazy quilt. There are a variety of different ways to use volume ribbons in crazy quilting, so feel free to experiment until you find a technique that you like. Some of the most popular ways to use volume ribbons include:

- Loops: Loops are a simple but effective way to add embellishment to a crazy quilt. To create a loop, simply thread a piece of ribbon through a needle and sew it onto the quilt. You can make loops of any size or shape, and you can even add beads or other embellishments to the loops.
- Bows: Bows are another classic way to add embellishment to a crazy quilt. To create a bow, simply tie a piece of ribbon into a bow and sew it onto the quilt. You can make bows of any size or shape, and you can even add beads or other embellishments to the bows.
- Flowers: Flowers are a beautiful and delicate way to add embellishment to a crazy quilt. To create a flower, you will need to cut a piece of ribbon into a circle. Then, fold the circle in half and sew it together. You can add beads or other embellishments to the center of the flower.

Volume ribbons are a versatile and easy-to-use embellishment that can add a touch of beauty and elegance to any crazy quilt. So experiment with different types of ribbons and techniques until you find a look that you love.
