Choosing the Right Fabric for Your Table Runner

When choosing a fabric for your table runner, there are a few things to consider:

- Durability: If you plan on using your table runner regularly, you'll want to choose a durable fabric that can withstand wear and tear. Some good choices include linen, cotton, and polyester.

- Washability: If you're likely to spill on your table runner, you'll want to choose a fabric that is easy to clean. Look for fabrics that are machine-washable and wrinkle-resistant.
- Style: The fabric you choose for your table runner should match the style of your dining room decor. If you have a traditional dining room, you might choose a fabric like linen or lace. If you have a more modern dining room, you might choose a fabric like cotton or polyester.

Easy Table Runner Patterns

Once you've chosen a fabric for your table runner, it's time to choose a pattern. If you're new to sewing, you might want to start with a simple pattern. Here are a few easy table runner patterns to get you started:

- Straight-line table runner: This is the simplest table runner pattern, and it's perfect for beginners. Simply cut a piece of fabric to the desired length and width, and hem the edges.
- Mitered corner table runner: This table runner pattern is a little more advanced than the straight-line table runner, but it's still relatively easy to make. To make a mitered corner table runner, you'll need to cut the fabric at a 45-degree angle and then sew the pieces together.
- Quilted table runner: Quilted table runners are a great way to add a touch of warmth and texture to your dining table. To make a quilted table runner, you'll need to cut three pieces of fabric: a top, a bottom, and a batting. You'll then need to quilt the three pieces together.

Trendy Table Runner Patterns

If you're looking for a more trendy table runner pattern, here are a few ideas:

- Table runner with tassels: Tassels are a great way to add a touch of whimsy to your table runner. To make a table runner with tassels, simply add tassels to the ends of the runner.
- Table runner with pom-poms: Pom-poms are another great way to add a touch of fun to your table runner. To make a table runner with pom-poms, simply add pom-poms to the ends of the runner.
- Table runner with lace: Lace is a classic fabric that can add a touch of elegance to your table runner. To make a table runner with lace, simply add lace to the edges of the runner.

Step-by-Step Table Runner Instructions

Once you've chosen a pattern for your table runner, it's time to start sewing. Here are some step-by-step instructions to help you make a simple straight-line table runner:

1. Cut a piece of fabric to the desired length and width. The length of the fabric should be twice the length of your table, plus 1-2 inches for overhang. The width of the fabric should be the desired width of your table runner, plus 1-2 inches for hem.
2. Fold the edges of the fabric over by 1/2 inch and press. Then, fold the edges over again by 1/2 inch and press again. Stitch the edges down close to the fold.
3. Your table runner is now complete!

Table runners are a great way to add a touch of style and personality to your dining table. With so many different patterns and fabrics to choose from, you're sure to find the perfect table runner to match your style and decor. So get creative and have fun sewing your own table runners!
