Since he could remember, Peter Quill had always wanted to know about his father. One day, Peter's mother gave him a box containing delicate trinkets and pictures.

"Peter," she said, "your dad was from outer space. We fell in love and had you. Your dad had to go back home, but he left a tracker you can use to contact him... if you ever get to space."

From that day, Peter dreamed of fighting not a way to get to outer space, and to his father.
